

Cotton Rounds

Use these Cotton Rounds when you do your parties and facials. They can be used with the Oil-Free Eye Makeup Remover. Add some cotton swabs to a ziplock bag and you'll be in business!

Party Trays

Use these Party Trays to go under your clear disposable trays in your black trays and mirrors. All four skin care systems are there. I store the two cards, with the four systems, in the black trays, and then flip the card to the correct system and display it under the clear tray.

Samples

I've given you a variety of samples. You can use these to get familiar with the colors or you can use them at facials. It may help you decide what samples to order in the future.

Goodie Bags

You can use these little self-sealing bags for your goodie bags. I usually include a business card, a sample of hand cream, a piece of candy, and a product sample, such as lip gloss or microdermabrasion.

Sacks

Here are a few sacks to get you started. You can order more on Section 2 when you place your next product order.

Lash Love

Mascara Wands

These are the wands to demo the Lash Love mascaras. Guests LOVE the mascara so much more when it is demoed with these mascara wands. Maybe you could use these at her Personal Color Appointment.

Instructors Guide

This is your guide to doing a Mary Kay party or facial! Your guests have a regular Party Book to look at and they don't know you have cheat sheets with suggested words in yours. Just read through it a few times to familiarize yourself with what to say, and then start holding parties with it!!

Party Book

This is a Party Book. It's what you have your guests follow along with during the party or facial. It's basically a picture book or story book. You'll want to replace my story on page 8 with your own page explaining why you started your Mary Kay business. You can purchase additional books from me for $10 plus shipping.

Hand Cream Samples

You can use these for your goodie bags until you can get some ordered.

Satin Hands Sampler

You can use this little Satin Hands Sampler until you get one ordered in. It's best to have a full-size set for a demo. This one will go quickly, but you can get lots of demos out of a full-size set.

Tickets

These tickets are used for the ticket game featured on page 9 of the Instructor's Guide. It will help you book those Personal Color Appointments.

Beauty Bash Book

This color book will help you suggest colors for your clients for their Personal Color Appointments. It's a great tool and will make you look so smart! Congratulations for completing the Color Confident course and achieving the Advanced Color Consultant designation.
